Hospital site still an issue to Hancock residents

By JUNE M. HEYDT

The site for the new Hancock County General Hospital was an issue discussed at the Waveland Aldermen's meeting conducted Wednesday evening.

Mary Caillier, a concerned citizen, said, "What we would like to do is give the people a chance to decide whether or not they want their hospital built in Bay St. Louis or in a centrally located area."

Board of Supervisors voted this month to purchase property owned by Norman Benigno located on US-90, Drinkwater and Green Meadow roads.

Caillier is in the process of having petitions signed asking that the hospital issue be placed on the ballot so the people of Hancock County can have a say in where they want their hospital.

"The hospital is for the whole county not just one area," said Caillier.

Caillier said, "I feel and a lot of other people feel that US-90 and 603 would be a central location. It doesn't have to be any particular property, just as long as it is in a central location."

"The only way the county can grow is north and east, right now it takes an ambulance coming from the northern part of the county 10 to 15 minutes to reach the hospital."

"The people to the north think they're being forgotten, and further, if Bay St. Louis is so sure the people want the hospital where they have designated it then they have nothing to fear from a public vote," Caillier continued.

Caillier brought up the issue that from Hwy. 603 or Waveland Avenue it takes more than 10 minutes to get to the hospital. "When a person is in an ambulance two or three minutes can mean the difference between life and death," Caillier said.

Waveland Mayor John Longo said, "I don't know how many lives could be saved because of two or three minutes, but it would probably be a lot."

Several other issues Caillier brought up were the FHA loan, she said, "FSL officials are saying they are going to use the Farmer's Home Administration loan to put in the sewerage, well since that is government money it has to be put to a vote of the people where to spend it."

Caillier also mentioned, "The issue of the hospital board's attorney saying that money was not an object if it's no object then why all the fuss about how much it would cost to fill land."

Longo said, "It was stated that it would cost $250,000 to fill the 16 acres of land donated. Let's break that down, only two acres would have to be filled for the actual site of the hospital, that would be $15,000 an acre."

"I can't believe that the hospital officials are saying that it doesn't mean anything to the taxpayer, of course it does. The land that was chosen will cost $370,000 and now I hear another acre is being purchased for $120,000," Caillier said.

"The land in Waveland is free land. People have said this land was under water during Camille. It wasn't, the National Guard and lots of other people were using the Waveland Inn right next door to that property during the storm."

Longo said, "I don't want a war with Bay St. Louis or the county. But, what's right is right and what's wrong is wrong. The whole thing boils down to what's good for the people."

"We are giving the city of Bay St. Louis 75 percent of a $3 million grant for the Wastewater facility," Longo said.

"It would only be fair since we only have a small amount to fix. This is only good politics because it's good for the people in Hancock County. It's just plain good business," Longo added.

Longo also said that the exact figures on the Wastewater grant will probably be available at the next Wastewater Authority meeting on Oct. 5.

Also during the meeting, a memo was read from Brother Martin Hernandez in which he apologizes to the hospital board of trustees, the board of supervisors and the special search committee for Hancock General Hospital for his affirmative vote for the purchase of Benigno property as site for the hospital.

Hernandez noted in his memo, "It was a disservice to the county at large because the Search Committee represented the county in its entirety. It was a disservice to the Hancock Hospital because it added considerably to the financial strain of acquiring property."

Mayor says money woes, authority allowed Bay debt

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

Mayor Larry Bennett of Bay St. Louis said Friday he was allowed to accumulate a $2,109 city utility bill because he is experiencing financial difficulties and in charge of the City Department.

When asked how he accumulated such a relatively high bill when other citizens' utility service is disconnected for delinquent payments, Bennett replied, "I've been having financial problems. The council (Bay St. Louis City Council) had nothing to do with it. I'm in charge of the utility department."

Bennett said he feels his personal financial problems are not of public interest.

The mayor reported he will repay the $2,109 balance due to the city during an approximate 21-month period by deducting $100 monthly from his pay check.

Bennett recently filed in U.S. Bankruptcy Court for financial reorganization in which he is requesting to pay 15 percent of his debts, including the utility bill.

Councilman Gene Taylor at a recent meeting questioned if the council would have authority to allow Bennett to pay 15 percent of the bill and Joseph Gex, city attorney, said the leaders would have that authority.

Taylor said he would vote to require Bennett to pay his entire utility bill.

Bennett reported he would repay the entire amount even if the court, scheduled to decide his request in October, allows him to repay 15 percent of his debts.

Regarding his financial difficulties, Bennett stated, "First of all, I'm not the first public official to have financial problems."

"I'm not trying to beat out paying my bills, I wouldn't have filed for re-arrangement, but for bankruptcy," he said.

"I will repay my bills as soon as I dispose of some property," Bennett stated.

The mayor said Taylor should have questioned him personally rather than publicly request the legal opinion.

TRASH FILLS THE DRAINS—Bay St. Louis Mayor Larry Bennett and District Four Supervisor Sam Pernicaro check out the trash thrown in drainage ditches at Spanish Acres subdivision. Bennett and Pernicaro both agree the trash and debris has a great deal to do with the problem of water not flowing freely through the drains. Bennett asked that the residents cooperate so that the county and city together can straighten these things out. (Staff photo by June M. Heydt)

City and county working together to fix drainage

By JUNE M. HEYDT

The problems with the drainage in Spanish Acres shouldn't all fall on the shoulders of the city according to Mayor Larry Bennett and Sam Pernicaro, District Four supervisor.

Bennett and Pernicaro, who are presently working together to try and straighten out some of the drainage problems, say the tenants are throwing trash into the drainage ditches which ultimately stops the flow of water.

Other problems causing the drainage to not function is the fact that residents in the subdivision have built fences over the easements where the culverts are located. The city can't get to the pipes to enlarge them, according to Pernicaro.

Also, the culverts have been stopped up with trash and debris and several times the fire department has had to come out and blow them free with water pressure, said Bennett.

"Whoever he was, the engineer that designed Spanish Acres didn't know what he was doing," said Pernicaro adding, "Neither Bennett nor me were in office at the time the subdivision was built at least 18 years ago."

"The houses are all built higher than the road causing the water to automatically run into the streets flooding them," said Pernicaro.

"They were probably built this way so that when prospective buyers came to see the property they would be impressed with the fact that the houses were on high ground," Pernicaro added.

Fire chief warns about wiring in older houses

By JUNE M. HEYDT

A structural fire was fought by Bay St. Louis Fire Department personnel Wednesday night at 404 Carroll Ave. at approximately 9:15 p.m., according to Fire Chief Andrew Lizana.

There were no injuries, according to Lizana. Owners of the house are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schmitt who were in the house at the time of the fire.

Lizana said the fire started in the attic and was due to old wiring that had been installed when the house was built in the early 1900s.

Storage of antique dishes and old pictures were sitting on the wires, the weight on the wiring caused an arc igniting the insulation and wiring.

The projects include the following: "Kessler Air Force Base, Biloxi, $10 million for base housing, dining room, computer training facility and a corrosion control facility."

SUICIDE ATTEMPT
A Hancock County Jail trusty Thursday at about 6 p.m. discovered Robert C. Strong, 28, hanging from his cell door by a shirt tie, Sheriff Ronald A. Peterson of the County Sheriff's Department reported Friday.

The sheriff said Jailer R.D. Ladner was called to the scene and cut the tie holding Strong. Strong then became violent and his arm was fractured in the struggle, Peterson reported.

The injury was treated at Hancock General Hospital in Bay St. Louis and Strong was then returned to jail, the sheriff said.

Strong was arrested at Carmel's Seafood in Lakeshore for "tearing up the place," Peterson stated.

The sheriff explained that Strong lived next door to the business and apparently followed his girlfriend to the establishment after an argument.

Strong fled the scene when deputies were summoned, but was nabbed about 30 minutes later and charged with driving under the influence of alcohol, no driver's license, disturbing the peace and malicious mischief, Peterson listed.

A .22 caliber automatic rifle and a large knife were found in the arrest, the sheriff said.

Peterson said the department did not realize Strong was suicidal, but was held in a single cell due to his destructive behavior.

The sheriff said Strong is calmer, but is now housed with another inmate.

Democratic Executive Committee appoints managers for election

By JUNE M. HEYDT

The Democratic Executive Committee met Thursday evening to select managers for the upcoming primary election to be conducted at Waveland East and Arlington precincts.

Joseph Benvenuti, committee director, said, "I would like it to be known that the managers who served during the last primaries could not be chosen again because the law prevents them from being reappointed."

Benvenuti wanted to stress the point that the managers from the other two primaries were not being accused of any wrong doing and stated that if this was the impression some people got because they were not reappointed, it is completely wrong.

"This committee did by no way suggest or imply that these managers were incompetent," added Benvenuti.

A member of the audience asked the committee members, "In a situation of this nature where two ballot boxes are thrown out why don't all the candidates get a new election?"

Benvenuti answered saying that only the person who asked can receive this service.

"Other candidates had the same privilege to check into any of the boxes. After the allotted time of 20 days following the election they waived their rights," Benvenuti added.

Bert Courge, District One supervisor, said, "I would like it to be known that I never did say there was any allegation of fraud. Nor did we point the finger at anyone and allege fraud."

Benvenuti said, "I'm setting the night after the election, Oct. 5 to canvas the ballots."

Leo Seal, secretary-treasurer, said, "We asked each candidate to submit names for the managers. We selected two managers from each of the candidates lists."

Managers selected for Arlington Box are Barbara Mitchell, Sandra LaFontaine, Pat Lanhan, receiving manager; and Pete Noto, bailiff.

At Waveland East No. 1 will be Eunice Farve, Delores Richman, receiving manager; Ray Norton, and Thelma Exnicious, bailiff.

And at Waveland East No. 2 Nancy Kern, Ann Develle, Jeanne Ray, receiving manager; and June Williams, bailiff.

Seal added, "The people who were named were voted on by the committee and appointed."

Seal also noted, "We didn't have to ask the candidates for names."

Benvenuti said a seminar will be conducted for the managers on Tuesday, Sept. 27 in the Board of Supervisors meeting room in the courthouse.

THROUGH THE GLASS
Kate Burton and her father Richard Burton lead an all-star cast in the new "Great Performances" presentation of "Alice in Wonderland" at 7 p.m., Monday, Oct. 3, on the Mississippi ETV Network.

Also starring are Eve Arden, Kaye Ballard, James Coco, Andre de Shields, Colleen Dewhurst, Andre Gregory, Geoffrey Holder, Zeljko Ivanek, Donald O'Connor, Austin Pendleton, Maureen Stapleton, Fritz Weaver and Alan Weeks.

WNET/Thirteen, the public television station in New York, acquired the worldwide television and film rights to "Alice in Wonderland" when the station became a limited partner and co-investor in Eva Le Gallienne's Broadway production.

This year marks the 50th anniversary of Ms. Le Gallienne's acclaimed production of the classic tale of her Civic Repertory Theatre and the 150th anniversary of author Lewis Carroll's birth.

CASTLE BUILDING

David Macaulay, author of "Cathedral," "City," "Pyramid" and "Underground," creates a "Castle" for ETV at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 5.

Former chairman of the Illustration Department at the Rhode Island School of Design, Macaulay is known for the minute detail included in his books about the design and construction of various structures. "Castle" is no exception.

A childhood fascination with castles combines with adult artistic proficiency in Macaulay. Frequent vacations in Wales as a young boy gave him a deeper affinity for the stone fortresses.

In this production, the first translation of one of his books to television, he applies his youthful experiences and artistic skills to the entertaining story of the building and functioning of an imaginary 13th-century Welsh castle called "Aberwyvern." Macaulay's own unique drawing style depicts the planning, building, habitation and siege of this fortress.

Our total future depends on our decisions at the voting polls. For this reason, I would encourage each of you to carefully weigh the qualifications and experiences of each candidate when you vote.

MY QUALIFICATIONS FOR SUPERVISOR ARE:

MY PRESENT INTERESTS IN WAVELAND ARE:

I have opposed the recent action of the new hospital site being moved to an area that is not central to both cities and the county.

I have plans for a joint effort with the City of Waveland to install railroad crossing signals at Waveland Ave., Coteman Ave., St. Joseph and Nicholson Ave.

All roads blacktopped in the old District 1 of Waveland for the last 8 years were a joint effort of District 1 and the City of Waveland.

Until January 1, 1984, the beach in Waveland North of Waveland Ave. is not in District 1. If you remember, after the beach road was torn up in Hurricane Frederick, that portion from Buccaneer Park to Bayou Cadet was the first portion repaired, and this was the portion in District 1.

The abandoned piling and drain pipes were removed from Waveland Ave. to Bayou Cadet with District 1 funds.

I initiated a new committee, consisting of the County and both Cities, to seek funds to rebuild our sand beach.

BIJOU MATINEE

Betty Boop, chocolate-covered raisins, Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, the Three Stooges and Rin Tin Tin conjure nostalgic memories among people who used to frequent their local movie theaters on Saturday afternoons in the '30s and '40s.

Well, today, ETV has set aside 90 minutes on Sunday afternoons for reminiscing: "Matinee at the Bijou" begins its fourth season on public television at noon, beginning Oct. 2, on the Mississippi ETV Network.

In the days when a quarter bought an afternoon of fun, no Saturday matinee would be complete without a serial. The series continues that tradition with two eight-part cliffhangers, "Mystery Squadron" and "Winners of the West."

This season's movies star Frankie Darro, James Newill, Pinky Tintin, Toby Wing and Bobby Blake ("Baretta"). Animation will include the works of Max Fleischer ("Betty Boop"), Ub Iwerks, Bob Clampett, Leon Schlesinger and Walter Lantz, and selected short subjects will feature W.C. Fields, the Ritz Brothers, Edgar Kennedy, the Three Stooges and Jimmy Durante.

RICE CROP

The condition of the state's rice industry will be seen through the eyes of farmers and market analysts on "Farmweek," the weekly agriculture series for Mississippians, at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Oct. 3, on Mississippi ETV.

Although rice production was not affected by this year's hot, dry summer, last year's prices and this year's payment-in-kind program have caused Delta farmers to drop production 30 percent from 1982 levels.

Each "Farmweek" program includes weather forecasts, production tips, market reports and analyses, farm news and notification of upcoming events of interest to farmers. The series is co-produced by Mississippi ETV and the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

All citizens should be informed of jail conditions in county

Several public forums are being scheduled throughout Hancock County in October by the Criminal Justice Facility Committee.

The committee, whose membership is composed of persons from every corner of Hancock County, were appointed by the supervisors and officials of Bay St. Louis and Waveland.

This group has been meeting with Fritz Suchke, architect with the firm of Nathaniel Curtis of New Orleans, and Fred Wagner, Bay St. Louis architect, who were hired by the Hancock County Board of Supervisors to do a jail study.

The supervisors upon hearing of the findings and recommendations, were unanimous in accepting plans for the construction of a new Criminal Justice Facility in the county.

In order for the facility to be constructed, it has to be voted on and passed in the November 8 General Election.

Some of the facts which the committee have been able to find out in the months of many meetings show a new jail is desperately needed.

We do recommend for everyone to try and attend at least one of the public meetings, so they can ask questions, and find out for themselves the problems facing out county with a jail which is outdated.

The new proposed facility is estimated to cost $2.5 million and one of the questions many ask is how much will it cost the tax payers.

Estimates show the cost would be a five percent increase on property taxes.

In the coming weeks we will be giving our readers more information on this important issue.

Workers for the Annual Gumbo Festival at Necaise Crossing have been very busy in recent weeks getting things ready for next weekend.

Much work will still be done this week up until Friday night's first day of the festival.

It is hard to realize this will be the ninth event to be held in Hancock County.

The entertainers for this year's festival are pretty familiar to us, especially Faron Young and Jean Shepard, as we can remember them as being among the tops in country music for many years.

And in recent years Ronnie McDowell, Charly McLain and Razzzy Bailey have joined the star status of country entertainers.

We are hoping there will as usual be a large turnout for the Gumbo Festival.

Folks will be coming from Mississippi and neighboring states for the fun filled weekend.

L.J. Breaux and fellow workers are getting the many necessary items ready for the big pot of gumbo and it should be ready for Friday evening at 6 p.m.

In case you do not know the location of the festival, it is North of Kiln on Hwy. 603 at Necaise Crossing.

We hope to see you at the gumbo festival.

At 4 p.m. this afternoon there will be an important meeting of the Bay-Waveland Society, Inc. to be held at the Exmouth Lodge, 1905 Waveland Avenue.

We are hoping many members of the society as well as friends will be on hand for this important gathering.

There are many good things such as the new shelter, funding, and cooperation of local vets and elected officials to be discussed.

The Humane Society members have for so many years dedicated themselves to helping our communities by trying to control the population of pets.

Some of the biggest helps have been the society's sponsored spay-neuter and adoption programs. Many children, as well as elderly persons in our communities have received their pets through the efforts of the Humane Society.

We know many times things looked very bleak for the few dedicated citizens who, as the old saying goes, 'held in there'. They know who they are, and we really want to offer a special thanks to them, because it was through their efforts the cities and county have the facilities they have today.

Much work has been done, and then again efforts will have to continue for the Humane Society to function properly.

The Humane Society will need the assistance of the elected officials and all citizens.

Much has been accomplished and we offer thanks to everyone.

Emergency Medicine Week continuing at Hancock General

The American College of Emergency Physicians is sponsoring Emergency Medicine Week Saturday.

"As the newest medical specialty, emergency medicine is the practice of treating life- or limb-threatening illnesses or injuries requiring immediate attention," according to Dr. Bill Bradford, emergency room physician at Hancock General Hospital.

"Emergency physicians provide this care, in addition to aiding all other patients who seek medical care in emergency departments," he continued.

"Unlike many other medical practitioners, the emergency specialists cannot see patients on a first-come, first-serve basis," said Bradford.

"They must carefully evaluate each patient and determine which must be seen first. Therefore, a patient entering the emergency department with an injury or illness that is not life-threatening may be kept waiting until the priority patient can be handled."

Emergency physicians undertake extensive training in emergency medical care. The American Board of Emergency Medicine administers a comprehensive certifying examination to emergency physicians who are adequately trained and prepared to enter the field of emergency medicine.

The board certifying examination was first offered in 1980, and there are currently, 1,175 board certified emergency physicians in the United States.

Emergency physicians must also participate in continuing education programs, which enable them to keep abreast of the most current advances in health care.

Hancock General Hospital, whose emergency department is staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week with physicians and nurses specially trained in emergency medicine, encourages the public to learn more about this important aspect of health care during Emergency Medicine Week.

Patrol sees increase in ticketing activity

Mississippi's state troopers have been ordered to be on the lookout for motorists who are littering the highways.

Col. Donald Butler, chief of patrol, said the Highway Patrol has been receiving an increased number of complaints from individuals and citizen's groups about the amount of trash dumped along roadways.

"Mississippi has tough laws against littering and the Highway Patrol is going to increase its efforts to enforce them," Butler said.

Litterers can be fined up to $500 for throwing paper, cans, glass or other trash from automobiles. Anyone convicted of littering can be required to pick up litter on both sides of a highway for a distance of up to five miles.

"Our troopers have been ordered to stop and issue citations to the drivers of automobiles who allow trash to be thrown from the cars or trucks they are driving," the chief said.

"It is said that the state must spend nearly one-half million dollars per year to pick up trash along the road, especially since the state budget is so tight."

"We must remember that about one and one-half million tourists will be driving through our state for the 1984 World's Fair in New Orleans and will form lasting impressions about Mississippi based on what they see from their vehicles."

"We should all take enough pride in the appearance of our state to dispose of litter in a proper and lawful manner," Butler said.

The chief reported that troopers will be cracking down on speeders in coming months. He said spot checks have shown that the average speed on state and federal highways has continued to climb through the summer months.

"Although our troopers have been concentrating on drunken driver arrests, we are not going to neglect speeding drivers."

"We will be issuing an increased number of speeding tickets for the remainder of the year," Butler predicted.

Now is the time to build a new jail

Sept. 23, 1983
Bay St. Louis
To the Editor

Dear Sir:

In 1936 Hancock County was a rural community of 11,000 residents. Since then our population has more than doubled, and we have the same jail we built 47 years ago.

Today, with crime worse then ever, we have no place in our present jail to lock up criminals securely. The amount of money spent in our courts to bring these criminals to justice is ultimately wasted, if we have to turn them loose.

Our 47-year old jail was originally designed to safely house 15 prisoners; there are too many instances when it is bursting at the seams with as many as 50 inmates.

The average, law abiding citizen should be outraged at spending tax dollars on a criminal justice system that sometimes forces our law enforcement officials to plea bargain with criminals who should be paying their debt to society behind bars.

Our jail problem is not new. The Board of Supervisors appointed a special citizens committee to study it, which they have done for the past six months.

The Board then overwhelmingly endorsed the need for a new jail. That is not surprising either, since the last 15 Grand Juries have recommended the same thing.

But the new jail is not really an issue for special committees or Grand Juries to decide. It needs to be decided by the voters. A series of public meetings will be announced in the newspapers will be held so that everyone can become apprised of the seriousness of the situation.

The Board of Supervisors took a big step forward recently when they voted to place a jail bond issue on the November 8 ballot. Equally important, the Board decided to have the Jail Committee continue working in an advisory capacity to the Board throughout the design and construction of the new facility. This is an effort to ensure that the taxpayers get the most for their money.

As a community we have a choice—either build a new jail or keep the one we have. Either way will cost! With a new jail, we spend money to make our community safer by keeping criminals off the streets.

No new jail will still cost us—both in money and security simply because the jail built in 1936 cannot measure up to crime in 1983, and will not even put a dent in the crime problems of the future.

The time is now for a new jail in Hancock County! Everything is on the rise—the population, crime, and costs. The worst thing we can do is wait!

Yours truly,
Lana Noonan

OUR NEED FOR NEW HANCOCK COUNTY JAIL

Representatives from all parts of Hancock County who have been designated by the Board of Supervisors, the Mayor of Bay St. Louis and Waveland, including personnel from the sheriff's office and police departments from each city have been meeting every month since January 1983 on a feasibility study for a new jail for Hancock County that would be located adjacent to our County Courthouse.

We have concluded that the cost of a new jail facility far outweighs what a lawsuit could eventually cost the taxpayers due to the hazardous condition of the present antiquated facility.

Mississippi law requires the jail facility be within a distance of one mile of the Courthouse and the new jail site is available without additional land acquisition cost to the taxpayers.

The ballot in the November General Election will have the bond issue for the new jail noted thereon and the committee recommends approval by the electorate.

As a member of the committee I wish to express a hearty thank you for a study well-done to our public minded citizens that served on the committee, the sheriff's office, Bay St. Louis and Waveland Police Departments, our county attorney, Hancock County prosecuting attorney, editor of the Sea Coast Echo, Fred Wagner, Jeff Taylor of GRPC and our county supervisors that offered professional advice.

CHORUS OF CONDEMNATION

The U.S. House of Representatives has joined a growing chorus of condemnation against the Soviet Union's "cold-blooded, barbarous attack" on an unarmed Korean Air Lines passenger jet three weeks ago.

And, if the Russians thought the issue would simply fade away, they were badly mistaken.

The United States joined most of the world's civilized nations in expressing its outrage over the actions of the Russians on Aug. 31 when fighter planes destroyed Korean Air Lines flight 007. The passengers on the plane, all 269 innocent men, women and children, were killed.

Among those who died was Georgia Congressman Larry McDonald, a well-known conservative Democrat whose loss will be felt in Congress.

This House resolution and a kindred resolution in the Senate both gave the background on the tragedy and recognized that the Communists lied in an attempt to justify an unconscionable act. They also denied access to the area where the plane went down.

The Soviet Union has the audacity to question the validity of the act even if it clearly destroyed commercial jets, and caused the deaths of the most innocent and defenseless people in the world.

frank explanation from the Russians on the incident.

It also extended deepest sympathies to the families whose loved ones were killed, and supported their rights to obtain reparations from the Soviet Union.

The House called on the Soviet Union to help international efforts to recover the remains of the victims and said that the International Civil Aviation Organization should investigate the incident. It also declared Congressional intent to work with the international community to demand modifications in Soviet air defense procedures and practices to assure safe passage in the future.

The resolution also urged U.S. allies and other nations to cooperate with us in implementing appropriate additional sanctions until the Soviet government "unequivocally apologizes for its actions, fully compensates the families of the innocent victims, and agrees to abide by internationally-recognized procedures to prevent recurrence of similar tragedies."

The vote in this House was unanimous with 400 members voting yeas. It should be a clear sign to the Russians that the United States is serious about this issue.

But I think it is important that the House also make it clear that the United States is not a nation that will be intimidated by the actions of a few rogue states.

LAWMAN OF THE YEAR—Capt. Robert Butler of the Bay St. Louis Police Department received an award for 'Lawman of the Year' from the administration and staff of the department. (Staff photo by June M. Heydt)

Award for 'Lawman of the year' goes to Captain Butler

By JUNE M. HEYDT
When a person is given an award by his peers, then he must deserve it. Capt. Robert Butler of the Bay St. Louis Police Department recently received a 'Lawman of the Year' award presented by the administration and staff of the department.

Butler said he was completely surprised. The vote was taken in a secret ballot by members of the department. Butler, who is only 39-years-old has already had one career in the Navy. He said he went in so young that they called him a 'kitty cruiser.'

He is very proud of a letter he received from the Department of Defense, Security Dept. concerning his work with the armed forces military police. The letter reads, "Butler was an exceptional asset to the service." The letter was signed by Lt. R.E. Byrne, USN.

Butler has received other letters that he keeps in his files. One is from a couple who he arrested on DUI charges. They wrote to thank him for arresting them since it is so important to keep the intoxicated person off the roads.

Another letter that Butler is proud of is one addressed to Bay St. Louis Mayor Larry Bennett from Ronald Peterson, Hancock County sheriff, commending Butler for his assistance in helping the sheriff's department.

NASA, NSTL marking October milestones

October marks two significant anniversaries for NASA and National Space Technology Laboratories in Hancock County.

On Oct. 1, NASA will celebrate its 25th anniversary as a government agency, while Oct. 25 marks NSTL's 20th anniversary.

In observance of these two milestones the public is invited to view "This is NASA," a new agency exhibit depicting all NASA centers.

The exhibit is now on display at NSTL's Visitors Center until Oct. 8.

Also, in commemoration of NASA's first quarter century, NSTL will present showings of a special 50-minute videotape documenting the accomplishments of NASA's first 25 years.

The videotape will be shown Wednesday in NSTL's Visitors Center auditorium at 11:30 a.m. The tape will also be shown at various times throughout the month of October. For information concerning dates and times of these showings call 688-2377.

The Center, located on Miss. Highway 607 with easy access off Interstates 10 and 59, is open Monday through Friday (excluding holidays) from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

In addition to viewing "This is NASA," visitors are invited to take advantage of other opportunities at the Center. A typical visit to the Center includes an overview briefing of NASA's missions at NSTL as well as projects of other federal and state agencies.

The program also includes demonstrations of space-related hardware and a tour of the installation.

The tour, conducted by experienced guides, includes the Space Shuttle Test Complex, where the Shuttle's main engines are now undergoing test firings.

Visitors also have the opportunity to view the installation from atop the 90-foot "Space Tower."

Visitors can also see indoor and outdoor exhibits and displays in addition to live demonstrations and movies. All displays, presentations and briefings follow the NSTL Visitors Center theme of "Space-Oceans-Earth."

Rock-A-Chaws stick Bearcats

Rock's graveyard defense resurrected

By JUNE M. HEYDT

The St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws took the game over four minutes after the start of the first quarter in an action-packed contest against the Long Beach Bearcats Friday night for a 17-6 victory.

The thorns of the Rock-A-Chaws stuck in and under the fur of the Bearcats all evening.

Rock Quarterback Casey Wittmann (12) threw a 10 yard touchdown pass to Wingback David Zanca (28) to culminate a 70-yard drive on their first possession.

With eight minutes left to go in the first quarter, Rock Split End Russ Betcher (22) kicked the first PAT of the game giving the Rocks a lead 7-0.

After the ensuing kickoff on the second play from scrimmage, Tailback Todd Thriffley (21) intercepted the ball and ran it back 27 yards.

In the second quarter, Todd Thriffley ran for a 53 yard TD with four minutes and 25 seconds left in the game.

The Rocks were driving for another TD but, a fumble at the eight yard line killed the drive when Bearcat Guard Mike Herfurth (55) recovered a fumble.

The game at this point seemed back and forth with the Rock defense playing exceptionally well.

With the Bearcats on the eight yard line Rock Guard Jordan Bradford (61) recovered a Bearcat fumble.

Rock Fullback Marty Sahuque (49) recovered a fumble and killed a Bearcat drive on the 40 yard line. The Bearcats turned around, intercepted a pass and recovered the ball.

In the third quarter of the game Rock Nose Guard Jerry Kelly (81) led the defense by making numerous tackles and sacked the Bearcat's quarterback four times for losses.

Later in the fourth quarter the Rocks cranked up their offense again and Betcher kicked a 27 yard field goal which marked the third time that he split the uprights for three points.

The Rocks were driving again when Bearcat Quarterback Chris Boszor (1) intercepted at the goal line to kill a Rock drive. Two plays later the Bears fumbled and the Rocks took over on the 15 yard line.

At that point the Rock offense stalled and Betcher kicked the 27 yard field goal.

Following Coach Vernon Powell's decision to send in the Rock reserves in a gesture of good sportsmanship, Bear Boszor threw a pass to Bear Wing Back Scott Webb (5) culminating a drive for a TD giving the Bears their only score for the game.

The Bearcats went for a two point conversion but were stopped for a loss by Rock Tackle Humberto (Nacho) Anderson (75).

The Bears went for another TD but Rock Jerry Kelly sacked the quarterback to kill the Long Beach hopes on the last play of the game.

The graveyard defense, resurrected at Stanislaus Stadium Friday night, showing the Bears how strong their team has grown.

Outstanding in the game were plays such as Russ Betcher's punt in the third quarter, Jerry Kelly's tackling in the second and fourth quarters, Jimmy Thriffley's blocking, and Millard Dumesnil's recoveries.

As the players on the sidelines kept yelling, "graveyard defense, bury them over the wall," Rock Guard Pat Nolan (68) stopped the Bearcats at the 15 yard line with six minutes and thirty one seconds left to go in the game.

With five minutes six seconds left in the fourth quarter Nacho Anderson tackled the Bearcats and stopped a two point conversion try.

"Shouts came from the sidelines again, 'Don't mess with Jordan,'" 14 seconds left in the game Dumesnil tackles the Bearcat quarterback.

Kelly got him again as the horn sounded for the end of the game.

Defensive linebackers Troy Flynn (40), Chuck Yarbrough (45), Marty Sahuque (49), Jimmy Thriffley (55), and John Ladner (77), did an excellent job of blocking.

The offensive line was led by Rock Guard Tom Allen (67), Tackle Greg Naft (78), and Tackle John Robinson (70). After the game Head Coach for the Bears Tom Boszor said to Coach Powell, "You've got good quickness. You all have a hard hitting ball team you made us look bad."

Boszor also mentioned the quickness of Todd Thriffley and the fact that Jerry Kelly stayed in their backfield all night.

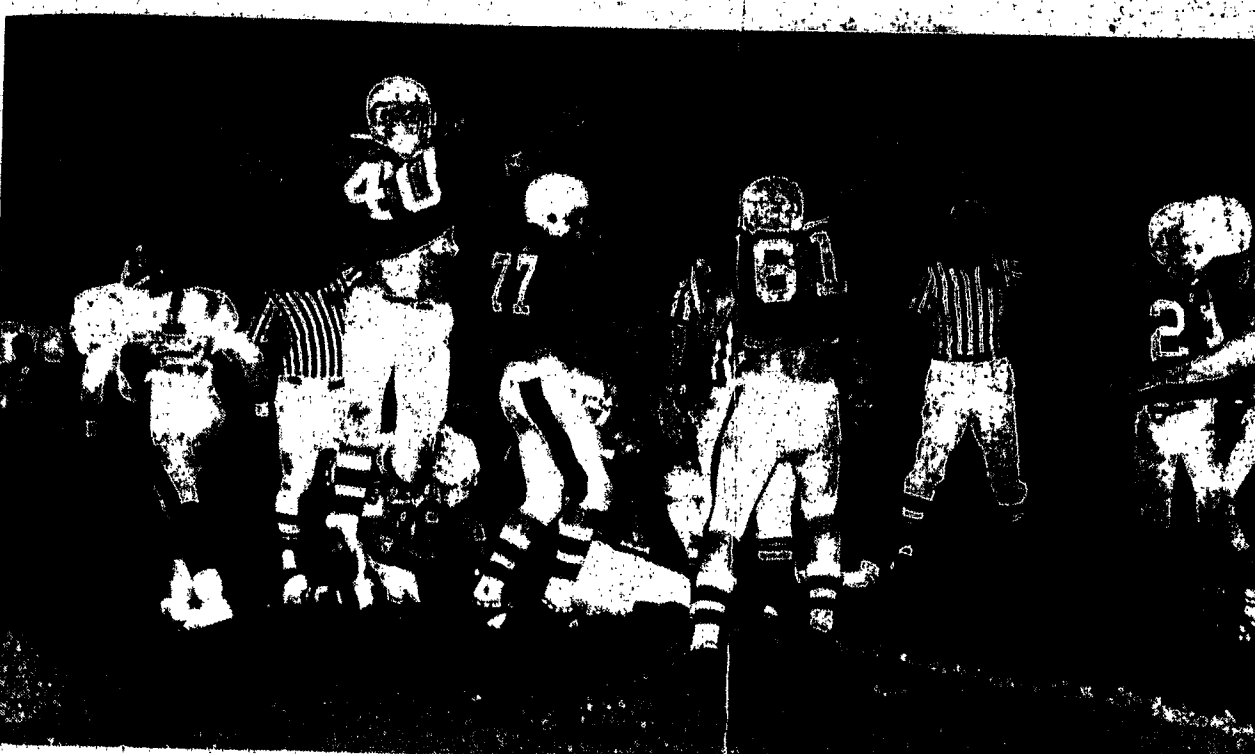

Powell said, "We played a good offensive game and put the Bears on the defense early and more or less controlled the ball game."

"We made Long Beach come out of their game play and made them do something different than they had prepared for all week."

Our defense did a great job and we had a chance to play an awful lot of people," Powell said.

The Rock-A-Chaws will face Bay High next Friday.

The graveyard defense is ready. And, the bottom line once again this week is—Yea Rocks!

Second shutout

Tigers blank Vancleave, 7-0

By RANDY PONDER

A fired up bunch of Tigers defenders terminated a Bulldog scoring threat late in the ballgame with a brilliant goal line stand, preserving a 7-0 Bay High victory in Vancleave Friday night.

Bay High took an early lead in the Deep South Conference matchup when Harold Gillum bulldozed his way into the endzone from 7 yards out in the first frame. Stace McRaney booted the extra point thru the uprights to complete all the scoring in the contest.

Gillum's touchdown capped a 54 yard, 11 play drive that started at the Bulldog 48 where Eddie Nelson recovered a Vancleave fumble.

The ball control drive mixed the pass and run to perfection, keeping the Vancleave defenders off balance and not knowing what was coming next.

The first play of the series was a pitchout from quarterback Jeffrey Smith to running back Willie Harvey for 3 yards. Harvey, on a determined run, was forced out of bounds on a jarring tackle by several Bulldogs, breaking the downs marker in half, resulting in a temporary delay of the game while Bay High assistant coach Gary Griffin used his taping expertise to make repairs.

A pass to wide receiver Matt Fairconnetue netted a first down at the Vancleave 42. Gillum advanced the ball to the 36 on a run up the middle. Then a 2 yard pass to Fairconnetue, following a pitchout for no gain, set up a 4th and 2 situation on the 34.

Quarterback Smith elected to keep the ball and dived forward for the first down. Harvey then grabbed a pitchout and raced 9 yards, breaking a couple of tackles in the process, to the 17. Vancleave called for a time out to regroup.

Following the time out, Gillum picked up the first down on the 15 with a hand off up the middle. A pitchout to Harvey around the left end moved the ball to the 7 and after an incomplete pass into the endzone, Gillum crossed the goal for the game's only touchdown.

Midway thru the second stanza, Nelson recovered another Vancleave fumble and the Tigers moved to the Bulldog 27 where they were stopped on downs.

Vancleave took over but was unable to advance and set up to punt the ball back to Bay High.

A bad snap from center forced the punter to chase the football and by the time he recovered, ever present Eddie Nelson was there to bring him down before the punt was off. With 45 seconds remaining in the first half, Bay High had the pigskin in excellent position on the Vancleave yard line.

The Bulldog defense stiffened, preventing a touchdown and on fourth down and goal to go from the 6, a 23 yard field goal attempt sailed left of the uprights as time ran out in the half.

Willie Lewis intercepted a Vancleave pass on the Bulldogs first possession of the second half. The Tigers marched to the Bulldog 19 where the drive stalled. A fake field goal attempt resulted in an incomplete pass from David Melver into the endzone as Vancleave held.

After an exchange of punts, the Tigers dramatic goal line stand was set up when quarterback Smith, under pressure, threw a pitchback away and the Bulldogs covered on the Bay High 10.

A handoff netted 4 yards to the Tiger 6. On second down, a try up the middle moved the ball 1 yard closer to paydirt. Then a quarterback keeper around the left end ran out of bounds on the 2, bringing up a critical 4th down and goal situation. The Bulldogs called time out to talk things over. On perhaps the biggest play of the ballgame, the Vancleave quarterback rolled out to the right looking for an open receiver in the endzone. Heavy pressure from the stingy Tiger defenders forced a wobbly pass which fell harmlessly out of reach of the well covered intended receiver. Bay High had dodged a bullet and maintained their 7-0 shutout.

Following an exchange of punts, Jerry Head came up with a fumble recovery to thwart a potential Vancleave threat with 3 minutes left in the contest.

Two plays later the Tigers fumbled the ball back to give Vancleave one last chance to either tie or win the game from the Bay High 33.

The Tiger defense was up to the challenge, stone walling the Bulldog and taking over on downs.

The offensive unit managed to hold on to the ball and run out the clock for a hard fought 7-0 whitewashing of the Bulldogs, spoiling their homecoming.

Bay High, 3-1, will entertain surprisingly successful St. Stanislaus, 2-2, for the bregging rights of Bay St. Louis. Kickoff is slated for 7:30p.m. at Tiger Stadium. A capacity crowd is expected.

ON THE OUTSIDE—Willie Harvey, 33, races around the left end, picking up several yards during first quarter action of the Bay High-Vancleave football game Friday night. Jerry Head, 53, runs interference behind the play. The Tigers upped their record to 3-1 with a 7-0 skunking of the Bulldogs in a Deep South Conference contest, holding Vancleave to just 75 total yards. (Echo photo by Randy Ponder)

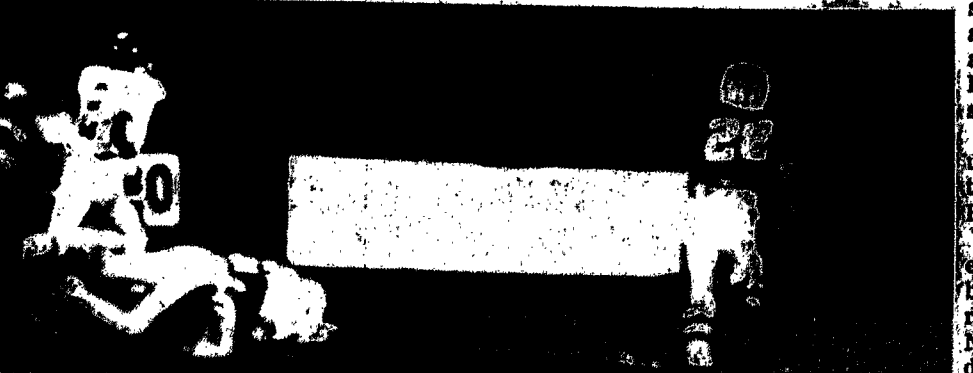

GRAVEYARD DEFENSE IN ACTION—Rock-A-Chaw defense keep the Bearcats from gaining much yardage in a game played Friday night at Stanislaus Stadium. Humberto (Nacho) Anderson tackles the Bear quarterback. The Rocks won 17-6 in an action filled game.

RUNNING FOR THE TOUCHDOWN—Rock-A-Chaw Tailback Todd Thriffley (21) runs for a 53 yard touchdown Friday night in a game against the Long Beach Bearcats. By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.
The Hancock North Central Hawks defeated the Pass Christian High School Pirates in a fourth quarter comeback, 20-14, in an exciting action-packed match in Francis S. McDonald Stadium in the Pass Friday night.

It was the meeting of the lines, pitting the awesome hard-hitting Pirates against bigger and slightly stronger Hancock squads.

In the front line battle, the Hawks edged the Pass whom, playing both ways due to a lack of substitutes, began to tire late in the second quarter from their tough task.

By halftime, Pass Christian lost their two remaining starting running backs to an injury and ejection from the game. Three others were benched due to injuries suffered in previous games.

In addition, several Pirate offensive attacks were cooled by costly delay-of-game and unsportsmanlike conduct penalties.

The Hawks took advantage of the Pirates' weakened defenses with several dazzling yard-gaining runs and two touchdowns by the elusive Hancock-Tailback-Lydell Curry.

Pass Christian scored all their points in the first half with HNC earning points in the second and fourth quarters.

A blocked Hawk punt gave the Pass the ball on the Hancock 21-yard-line. The Pirates marched to the 10 where Pass Quarterback Joey Rogers hurled a pass to Wide Out Irvin Hall who snagged the ball by his fingertips near the far right side of the end zone.

Field Goal Specialist Billy Bonney booted Pass Christian's first successful extra point of the season to up the score to 7-0 within the first five minutes of the game.

Early in the second quarter, Pass Christian drove from their own 37 to the Hancock five where Rogers bulled in for the Pirates final TD.

Bonney's second successful conversion effort upped the score to 14-0.

But late in the quarter, after the Pass' strength began to decrease and the penalties against them increased, a deflected punt fell into the hands of the elusive Curry who scrambled and rambled from about the 50 to put the Hawks on the scoreboard.

Hancock's botched fake kick conversion attempt set the halftime score of 14-6.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Hawks at the beginning of the fourth had driven from their own 10 to the Pirate 25.

Two minutes into final quarter, Hancock Quarterback Scott Favre scored on a one-yard keeper upping the score to 14-12.

The Hawk second two-point conversion attempt also failed.

Later in the fourth period, Hancock fought to the Pirate

13 where Curry scampered in for another six.

Another bungled conversion attempt left the score at 14-18.

With about two minutes left in the game, a Hall interception gave the Pirates the ball on their own three.

But the Hawk blitz overwhelmed the weary Pass team which resulted in a two-point safety for HNC and set the game score at 20-14.

Hancock employment figures encouraging

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

Hancock County's unemployment rate decreased to its lowest point within the last eight months, according to current figures from the State Employment Service's Gulfport office.

The report shows Hancock with a jobless figure of 11.2 percent—the lowest listed since January's 11 percent rate.

For the first time in several months, the Hancock rate is lower than the statewide figure which is 12.2 percent, but higher than the nationwide 9.2 percent rate for the same period.

In June the county's unemployment rate reached an all-time high of 16.9 percent representing 1,710 jobless out of a resident civilian labor force of 10,140, the employment service figures show.

Since that time Hancock's labor force figure has decreased to 9,490 with 1,060 of those listed as unemployed in August.

Mississippi's unemployment rate represented a decrease of one and three-tenths of a percentage point compared to July's revised jobless rate of 13.5 percent, says Cohen Robertson, Security Commission executive director in Jackson.

Last year's August unemployment rate was 11.5 percent, he notes.

Commission figures show 128,700 unemployed and 928,500 employed out of a statewide civilian labor force of 1,057,200.

Some 62 of the state's 82 counties report unemployment rates of 10 percent or higher in August and of that number, four list unemployment rates of 20 percent or above.

Counties with the highest unemployment rates in August are George at 22.4 percent, Montgomery at 21.2, Jefferson at 20.8, and Jackson, 20 percent.

ETV Brief

TROUBLING WAR

The first "television war" returns to America's living rooms this fall when Mississippi ETV begins airing "Vietnam: A Television History."

The 13 programs detailing the infamous war that changed a generation and continues to color America thinking on foreign policy can be seen at 9 p.m., Tuesday, beginning Oct. 4. (The second program in the series will be telecast at 9 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 5, but the series resumes its regular schedule with the third program at 9 p.m., Tuesday, Oct. 11).

The series is neither a polemic nor a testimonial, but a history—a history that starts with the political breakdown of Vietnam in 1945 and runs through the U.S. evacuation in 1975 and beyond. The producers emphasize that it is neither a hawkish justification nor a dovish indictment of what Americans did there.

The series presents the story of the Vietnam era as seen through the eyes of those who lived it on both sides—from presidents to followers of the peace movement, from generals to foot soldiers.

CHIEF CHECKS WIRING—Fire Chief Andrew Lizana checks out the wiring in a house at 409 Carroll Ave. believed to have been cause of a fire in the structure Wednesday night. Lizana said the wiring that was put in houses back in the early 1900s is not adequate for today's appliances. (Staff photo by June M. Heydt) around the dishes, said Lizana.

"It was obvious where the fire began because the spot was more charred and burned," Lizana explained.

Lizana said, "The wiring that was put in these old houses is inadequate, it was not made to handle the newer appliances such as toasters, mixers, and other kitchen gadgets."

Lizana continued, "When this wiring was put in it was made to handle 15 or 20 amps. When once 18 gauge wires could be used, today's modern facilities need 12 gauge wiring."

Keena Hauxet, a neighbor said, "It sure didn't take the fire company long to get there."

Lizana added, "The Bay St. Louis Police Department did an excellent job on traffic control and assistance."

It took the fire department until 11:45 p.m. to completely extinguish the fire because of the smoldering in the insulation, Lizana said.

Bennett said, "The whole subdivision is comparable to a saucer."

Bennett said he would like to add that people are complaining about calling and asking us to come out and then never showing up. "I would just like to say that when we receive calls we always try to get there, it might not be at that very moment but we do come."

"Another problem," said Perniclaro, "is when you suggest to the residents that you want to move their fences to get to the culverts they raise all kinds of hell because they don't want us on their property."

The county and city are working together to try to straighten out these problems, said Bennett but indicated that cooperation from the people is necessary.

Corn, that staple of cuisines all over the world, is said to have originated in this hemisphere, and was a strong factor in the survival of the early colonists in America.

The Indians discovered corn growing as a wild grass which apparently originated in the southern highlands of Mexico. They cultivated it and developed it into what later was called Indian corn or maize.

They taught the early settlers to plant corn which became the colonists' staple food, often their only food throughout the year. Following the ways of the Indians, they roasted the corn, they turned it into meal and made ashcakes, johnnycakes, puddings, mush and all sorts of other dishes to sustain them through the rigors of the early years.

The early settlers copied the Indian way of grinding the corn in hallowed-out bits of log with wooden pestles. Later on, they used "saw mills," two flat, circular grinding stones set one upon the other.

Still later came the windmills and the watermills, the grist mills.

Is there anything more tasty than roasted or boiled or steamed corn dripping with butter, either at home or around the campfire? Contrary to many cooks' recipes, I never, never salt the water when boiling corn...that makes the kernels tough. I toss in a bit of sugar, instead...and cook it only until the milk in the kernels is set, for corn becomes firmer or tough when overcooked.

There are so many ways to cook and serve corn, from chowder to casseroles. Here's one of our favorites—

Corn and Peppers Saute
6 ears of corn
2 bell (green) peppers
1 onion, chopped
2 green onions, chopped
2 Tbsp. butter
1 garlic clove, minced
Cut the kernels from the cobs. Chop the peppers fine. Saute the onions in the butter, add the garlic and saute a minute or so more, then add the corn and bell pepper, seasoning to your taste with pepper and salt.

Saute for another five minutes, then add about a tablespoon or so of hot water or broth, cover the pan, reduce the heat and let it simmer for about 10 to 15 minutes. Watch to see that it doesn't dry out, and add more liquid if necessary. You may want to add a spoon or so of butter to the mixture at serving time.

Simple, but simply delicious! Sometimes I add lima beans, to make that Indian favorite succotash; at other times, chopped tomatoes and bacon grease, to make that Cajun-Creole dish, "Maque Choux." There are many variations and additions! Sometimes, I even stuff the whole business into a green pepper or tomato, or use as a filling or topping for an omelet. (Six servings).

HOME SEW FASHIONS, METHODS
The latest from around the world on fashion and home sewing techniques will be brought to Mississippi via satellite on Nov. 5.

After several years of research the American Home Sewing Association organized the first such conference in 1982. During that conference live presentations were made via satellite to participants in 31 cities coast to coast. In addition, participants were able to ask questions of the professionals.

The process, called teleconferencing, involves simultaneous telephone and television hook-ups. In this way an interested home sewer in Florida can ask questions of a fashion expert in Chicago while Oregon participants listen in.

The teleconference will include a sneak preview of Spring '84 fashions and an insider's tour of a pattern company. Fabric industry spokespersons will tell about the most unusual and modern innovations in textiles.

Professional tailors will provide tips on achieving a perfect fit in home sewn garments, and quick and easy methods for altering finished garments.

The teleconference will be held at the Sheraton Regency Convention Center in Jackson from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Nov. 5.

Cost of the teleconference is $45 for registrations received before Sept. 22, $55 from then until Oct. 10 and $75 the day of the event if any seats are available.

For more information, contact Darlene L. Underwood, Hancock County Extension Home Economist, 405 N. Main Avenue, Bay St. Louis, MS 39520, or call 467-5456.

ETV Brief

MAKING IT BIG

"Pictures," a comedy about an aspiring actress who wants desperately to make it big in the movies, opens the 1983-84 season of "Masterpiece Theatre."

The seven-episode story set in 1920s England can be seen at 9 p.m., Sundays, beginning Oct. 2, on the Mississippi ETV Network.

Wendy Moran portrays Ruby Sears, the ambitious unknown who crashes film star's parties and waits on tables in the studio commissary—anything to get close to anyone who can help her along the path to stardom. After the usual setbacks, she finds love with Bill Trench, played by Peter McEnery, a cynical screenwriter constantly battling his studio boss over his scripts.

Wendy Morgan is currently starring on the London stage in Beth Henley's "Crimes of the Heart."

IT'S A FACT

Mississippi Power Company generates over 95% of its electricity by using coal from Alabama, Colorado, Illinois, Kentucky, and Utah. About 4% is from natural gas. Less than 1% from fuel oil. None of our electricity is generated by using nuclear power.

In Southeast Mississippi the name's Mississippi Power. And that's all there is to it.

Miss America preliminary slated

The annual Miss Mississippi USA Pageant will be held again this year in Biloxi, according to a recent announcement by John Rester, president of Mississippi Pageants, Inc.

The date for the state finals is Dec. 16-17, according to Rester, who said that once again the contestants will be hosted at the Royal d'Iberville Hotel on the beach in Biloxi.

The Miss Mississippi USA Pageant is an Official Miss USA-Miss Universe contest.

Rester stressed that "there is no performing talent requirement; all judging is based on poise, personality, beauty of face and figure. Applicants must be between the ages of 17 and 24 as of May 1, 1984, never have been married and must have resided in the state of Mississippi for at least six months. Residence at a college or university is acceptable."

Because the Pageant is earlier than ever this year,

Rester urged all young ladies interested in competing for the title to write immediately to: Miss Mississippi USA Pageant Headquarters, P.O. Box 1662, Gulfport, MS 39501.

Rester emphasized that all letters must include a recent snapshot, a brief biography and a telephone number where they may be contacted.

"The young lady chosen as Miss Mississippi USA 1984," Rester said, "will represent the Magnolia state in the premiere beauty event of 1984...the Miss USA Pageant to be nationally televised on CBS-TV in May of 1984."

In addition to the travel and promotional opportunities, the winner will receive valuable prizes and a cash award.

"Our current Miss USA, 21-year-old Becky Case of Jackson, a graduate of Mississippi State University, will crown her successor at the Royal d'Iberville Grand Ball Room on Dec. 17," Rester said.

SIXTY TWO YEARS AGO—The late Msgr. A. J. Gmelch, front row center, former pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church in Bay St. Louis, gathers in front of the church April 24, 1921 with his team of fund raising parishioners who solicited some $30,000 to furnish the interior of the edifice which was erected in 1908 on the same site as an original structure destroyed by fire Nov. 16, 1907. Sole survivor among this group is Charles A. Bandaret, 92, of Bay St. Louis, top row, second from right. Others are, front from left, Ernest J. Leonard, Mrs. Kate Conner, Mrs. G. Y. Blalze, Mrs. Marshall Ballard, Father Gmelch, Miss Elsie Spurl, Miss Pearl Fabey, Mrs. Claude Monti, Joseph O. Mauffray and Joseph L. Favre; second row from left,

Leonard Franz, Andrew Scaffidi, C. G. Moreau, Dr. A. A. Kergosien, John Buehler, Alvin Weinberg, A. D. Benvenuti, E. J. Arceneaux, August Schiro and Gaspar Maurigi; third row from left, C. A. Fricke, Albert Twickler, J. V. Bontemps, Sam Piazza, Arthur Lolacano, George Schelb, Asa Fayard, Henry Fayard and Anthony Lolacano; and fourth row from left, Harry C. Glover, Frank Green, George Hoffman, E. J. Giering, A. R. Hart, Harry S. Saucier, S. L. Toquet, S. L. Green, Bandaret and A. Batistella. (Photo courtesy of Mrs. O. W. Delph of Bay St. Louis)

Montjoy chairs local Bramlett campaign

Paul Montjoy of Bay St. Louis is chairman of Republican candidate Leon Bramlett's Hancock County organization.

Montjoy said he would organize Hancock County for Bramlett along the same bipartisan lines that Bramlett outlined earlier in a statewide steering committee meeting in Jackson.

"I am definitely going to follow Leon's lead to involve Democrats, Republicans, and Independents in the Hancock County organization," said Montjoy upon receiving the appointment.

Bramlett, the Clarksdale farmer and businessman, says he has formed a bipartisan campaign because he believes "the problems we face in Mississippi are not political and they must be solved on a bi-partisan basis."

Bramlett served as chairman of the state Democratic Party from 1968 to 1972.

He joined the Mississippi Republican Party in 1976 and was the co-chairman of the Ford presidential campaign in Mississippi.

In 1980, Bramlett served on the state steering committee for Ronald Reagan's campaign and was co-chairman of Reagan's volunteer effort.

Harrison Humane Society seeking flea market items

Harrison County Humane Society is seeking donations of old and unwanted "treasures" for their fall flea market.

"Go on a treasure hunt for the homeless pets," urges Eileen Lopez, society director. "Search through your attic, jewelry box, closets, garage, and 'junk' and donate us items for our mid-October flea market," she asks.

"Bring your old treasures to the Harrison County Humane Society on Washington Avenue in Gulfport, or phone the 'Treasure Hunt Lady' at 863-3354 for more information," Lopez added.

Montgomery to hear physicians critical of VA Hospital system

Representative G.V. (Sonny) Montgomery (D-Miss.), chairman of the House Committee on Veterans' Affairs, has announced an oversight hearing to examine charges that Veterans Administration health care procedures, policies and practices are inefficient and should be redesigned and restructured.

The Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations, also chaired by Montgomery, will conduct the hearing at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday in 334 Cannon House Office Building.

The allegations were made in a report issued by the Committee on Veterans Administration, a subcommittee of the Association of Orthopedic Chairmen.

"I promised a full investigation when this report first surfaced in July," said Montgomery. "I disagree with parts of the report, and I want to hear more from both the orthopedic physicians and VA officials. The physicians have asked for a 'reasonable dialogue' and the VA has asked for a chance to respond. This hearing will provide an opportunity for both."

The report, citing what it calls a "candid assessment of VA health care practices," says that while "there is within the VA system a substantial quantity of quality health care," this "does not excuse an increasing deterioration of medical care which, is not reversed, could jeopardize the entire program."

Calling the entire system "grotesquely inefficient and wasteful," unidentified physicians who participated in the report maintain that VA hospitals are hurt by funding procedures, orthopedic physicians are frustrated by bureaucratic red tape, equipment is poor and sometimes non-existent, admission policies are costly, inventories of basic medical supplies are low, and the VA system encourages long, costly, unnecessary hospitalization.

Dr. Donald L. Custis, the VA's chief medical director, says, "We are aware that we have weaknesses in this vast system and strive constantly to correct them. This report, however, consists of a series of disconnected, anonymous anecdotes which, because of anonymity, does not allow refutation."

"As such, it is a real disservice to our dedicated VA orthopedists and chairmen of orthopedics as well as the VA and this country as a whole," the chief continued.

Custis adds that the report "is also suspect (in that it) might be used as a medium to raise the issue of orthopedics as a separate service within the VA rather than a section under the Surgical Service." Among those invited to present testimony before the Subcommittee are Dr. James L. Hughes, professor and chief of orthopedic surgery at the

VA drops home loan interest

On Aug. 23, 1983, the Veterans Administration decreased the basic loan-guarantee rate for single-family homes and condominiums 13 percent said Willie E. Fletcher, VA loan guaranty officer for Mississippi.

At the same time, the VA maximum interest rate for graduated payment mortgage loans were decreased to 13.25 percent.

Other current VA loan-guarantee rates: 14.5 percent for purchase of manufactured home units; 14 percent to buy both a mobile home and a lot, and 14 percent for loans to purchase a lot and the cost of necessary site preparations.

The change, however, doesn't affect existing GI loans whose interest rate remains the same for the life of the agreement.

VA guarantees loans made by private lenders to eligible veterans, widowed spouses of veterans who died as a result of service connected disabilities, or spouses of service personnel officially listed as missing in action or prisoners of war for more than 90 days.

The basic home-loan guarantee—now set at 13 percent—is for a maximum of $27,500 or 60 percent of the loan, whichever is the lesser amount.

USM offering BA in church music

Considering a career in church music? The School of Music of the College of Fine Arts at the University of Southern Mississippi now offers the bachelor of music degree with an emphasis in church music.

Courses designed for a career in church music emphasize skills on how to organize and direct a graded choir program, plan worship services, maintain and promote a continuing music ministry, relate music to the entire church program, and locate music and materials.

The course of study is designed for those who will be pursuing a full-time career in church music.

"There has emerged a real need for this program as costs of a private school offering the same emphasis have become prohibitive," said Ron McCreery, director of the USM School of Music. "Many students who have been going elsewhere are coming to USM for the church music emphasis."

This year 18 students have enrolled in the church music emphasis program, according to Bob Jones, assistant processor of music, who teaches some of the courses. Jones is in his second year at USM.

Since 1970, he has been minister of music at Main Street Baptist Church, where he is responsible for 18 music organizations and has gained wide acclaim for the annual "Singing Christmas Tree," which he initiated in 1975.

"The main thing I'm trying to do is give students practical knowledge in the ministry of music in the church," Jones said. "I feel that our program will equip them for what they will encounter in the field. They will know what music is all about in theory and practice."

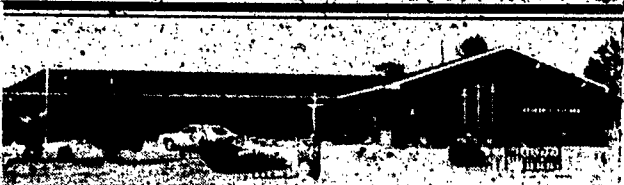

"The emphasis in church music has been brought up to date and made relevant to the needs of today's churches," said Dr. Paul Andersen, assistant dean of the College of Fine Arts and professor of music who also teaches courses in the emphasis.

Courses under the church music emphasis include Introduction to Church Music, Hymnology, Graded Choirs I & II, History of Church Music, Church Music Literature, Organ in Worship, and Administration of Church Music.

The city of Hattiesburg contains over 70 churches, many of which invite student participation in their music ministries.

please write: Coordinator of Church Music, University of Southern Mississippi, Southern Station Box 5081, Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5081 or (601) 266-5544.

ASCS Report

FOOD AND FITNESS

America is blessed with food in a supply more abundant than any other nation in the world. Yet the general health and fitness of its citizens are much less than desired.

For this reason, the U.S. Department of Agriculture has joined with the private sector to implement a "Food and Fitness" campaign.

The purpose of this campaign is to provide the public with reliable information about food, nutrition and exercise and their effects on the health and well-being of people.

Gennin said that his agency is lending full support to this campaign.

He went on to say that Extension Service personnel are taking the lead in this campaign, however, ASCS and other USDA agencies will be participating fully.

Gennin said the American farmer is providing this nation with a plentiful supply of high quality food. However, the type of food we eat and the exercise we get all have a bearing on our general health, fitness, and life expectancy.

During coming months the goal of the "Food and Fitness" campaign will be to acquaint every citizen of Pearl River and Hancock Counties with:

1. Importance of the food supply which is available in our country.

2. Importance of good nutrition throughout life.

3. The critical relationship between diet and regular exercise in maintaining good health.

4. Importance of good health in the enjoyment of life.

5. The importance of good health in the enjoyment of life.
